Poem 3

TODAY

Today, we walk this path called life
Amidst the struggle - and the strife.
There is much we do not understand
While on this road across the land!

Love the flowers while you may,
Before they die and fade away.
Gems so rare are made to treasure -
Enjoy them now - without measure!

One hour passing - a day to live,
A year of life - ourselves to give,
Devote to work - to love - and play -
And do the best you can - TODAY!
